Students for Saving Social Security To Hold Social Security Event on the Hill with Senator Jim DeMint and other Members of Congress

When: 12:00 p.m., Wednesday, July 19th

Where: Hart Senate Office Building, room 902

What: Students for Saving Social Security (S4), a non-partisan student group with more than 3,500 students in 280 chapters nationwide, is holding an event to discuss how Social Security reform affects students.

The event will give Members of Congress such as Senator Jim DeMint (R-SC), Congressman Steve King (R-IA), and Congressman Jim Kolbe (R-AZ) a chance to present their thoughts on Social Security reform. Also speaking are senior policy analyst David John (The Heritage Foundation), policy director Max Pappas (FreedomWorks), and policy director Carrie Lucas (Independent Women's Forum). Patrick Wetherille, national director and co-founder of S4, will be available for questions immediately following the event.
